II. Comprehension:

Read the passage then answer the questions below:

The Messenger of Allah, Prophet Mohammad (peace be upon him), was born in 570 CE in Makkah. Because his parents died when he was very young, he was raised by his grandfather and later by his uncle, Abu Talib. He also lived with Bedouins for a few years, to learn the classical language and their simple way of life. At the age of 25, Mohammad married a woman called Khadija (may Allah be pleased with her) and lived with her for over 20 years, until she died. Khadija chose him because of his honest and responsible nature.

When he was 40 years old, he received the first verses of the Holy Qur'an from Allah and became the last prophet. Then he had to deliver these verses to all mankind.

The Qur'an talked about Allah's kindness and also the need for people to be good towards other people.

One day, during prayer, the Prophet heard a child cry. For this reason, he shortened the prayer so that the child could go to his worried mother. Another example involves a poor man. The Prophet Mohammad felt so sorry for him that he gave him the only clothes he had. He was merciful even with his enemies, and he would forget their insults.

The Prophet was also kind to animals. One day, he saw a camel that was suffering because it couldn't carry its load. The Prophet felt that its owner was cruel to it, and he was upset.

The Prophet died in 632 CE, but by then he had managed to spread Islam and its teachings in the Arabian Peninsula and unite the Arab tribes in the name of Allah.

Read the passage then answer the questions below:

The Messenger of Allah, Prophet Mohammad (peace be upon him), was born in 570 CE in Makkah. Because his parents died when he was very young, he was raised by his grandfather and later by his uncle, Abu Talib. He also lived with Bedouins for a few years, to learn the classical language and their simple way of life. At the age of 25, Mohammad married a woman called Khadija (may Allah be pleased with her) and lived with her for over 20 years, until she died. Khadija chose him because of his honest and responsible nature.

When he was 40 years old, he received the first verses of the Holy Qur'an from Allah and became the last prophet. Then he had to deliver these verses to all mankind.

The Qur'an talked about Allah's kindness and also the need for people to be good towards other people.

One day, during prayer, the Prophet heard a child cry. For this reason, he shortened the prayer so that the child could go to his worried mother. Another example involves a poor man. The Prophet Mohammad felt so sorry for him that he gave him the only clothes he had. He was merciful even with his enemies, and he would forget their insults.

The Prophet was also kind to animals. One day, he saw a camel that was suffering because it couldn't carry its load. The Prophet felt that its owner was cruel to it, and he was upset.

The Prophet died in 632 CE, but by then he had managed to spread Islam and its teachings in the Arabian Peninsula and unite the Arab tribes in the name of Allah.

Read the passage then answer the questions below:

Before you travel to a foreign country, it is a good idea to learn a few things about the customs and gestures of the people. These may be very different from yours and if you are not familiar with them, you might make a fool of yourself or even get into trouble!

Saudi Arabia

Many Saudis offer their guests a delicious ‘gahwa’, or Saudi coffee, which they pour from a special coffee pot which is held high above the guest’s cup. What most foreigners don’t know is that your host will keep pouring coffee until you let him know you don’t want any more. You do this by shaking the cup from side to side.

INDIA

Be careful when you want to point at something in India, because it is impolite to use your finger. You should either signal to something using your chin, or even better, your whole hand. Also, in some places, you need to remove your shoes. It’s considered rude behaviour if you don’t. And if you offend someone, the best way to say sorry is to tap the person on the shoulder, then tap your forehead.

Peru

Raising your eyebrows in most countries is a sign of surprise. But in Peru it means ‘money’ or ‘pay me’. So, if someone from Peru owes you money, remember to raise your eyebrows.

China

Greeting in China is usually a slight nod and a bow. Also, it is polite to offer a gift to a Chinese host when you visit. However, hosts will often refuse the gift many times before they accept it.

Before you travel to a foreign country, it is a good idea to learn a few things about the customs and gestures of the people. These may be very different from yours, and if you are not familiar with them, you might make a fool of yourself or even get into trouble!

Saudi Arabia

Many Saudis offer their guests a delicious 'gahwa', or Saudi coffee, which they pour from a special coffee pot held high above the guest's cup. What most foreigners don't know is that your host will keep pouring coffee until you let him know you don't want any more. You do this by shaking the cup from side to side.

India

Be careful when you want to point at something in India, because it is impolite to use your finger. You should either signal to something using your chin, or even better, your whole hand. Also, in some places, you need to remove your shoes. It's considered rude behavior if you don't. And if you offend someone, the best way to say sorry is to tap the person on the shoulder, then tap your forehead.

Peru

Raising your eyebrows in most countries is a sign of surprise. But in Peru, it means 'money' or 'pay me'. So, if someone from Peru owes you money, remember to raise your eyebrows.

A cold Day

It is a frigid January day in York, Pennsylvania. The temperature is below freezing. Snow is starting to fall. Dr. James turns on the television to check the weather. He must leave for his work at the hospital soon. "Today is going to be very cold, " says the TV weatherman. "Be sure to wear very warm clothes when you go outside. Also, be careful driving on the roads. Snowfall will make them slippery. In fact, if you can stay home today, do it!" Dr. James cannot stay home. Very sick people are waiting to see him at the hospital. He goes to his closet. He takes out the warmest clothes he has. He puts on a sweater, jacket, gloves, socks, boots, and a hat. He opens his front door to go to work. A gust of cold air blows inside. "Wow, it is very cold outside," Dr. James says. He is from Miami and is not used to the cold. "The weatherman was right!" Before he can drive to work, Dr. James must clear the snow off his car. He does this very fast. He hops in the car. He shivers. His neck feels especially cold. Dr. James drives slowly to work. Everyone else is driving slowly, too. There is a lot of traffic on the road. There are cars in front of and behind him. Suddenly, the cars in front of Dr. James come to a stop. There has been an accident! Dr. James hurries from his car to check on the driver of the car that has swerved off the road. "Is everyone okay?" Dr. James asks. "Yes, yes, we are fine. Super Goal 3: Composition

Unit 7: It's a Good Deal, Isn't It?

Write about a strange coincidence or chance meeting.

One day, I went to the park with my family. I was playing near the swings. Suddenly, I saw a boy from my old school. I was very surprised because I did not see him for two years. We started talking and laughing together. Our parents also started talking. It was a strange and happy coincidence. I will always remember that day.

Unit 8: Drive Slowly!

Write about why the driving age should be raised to 18 or older.

I think the driving age should be 18 or older. Young drivers do not have enough experience. They can make more mistakes on the road. Older drivers are usually more careful. They can make better decisions while driving. This can help reduce car accidents. It can also keep people safer. I believe raising the driving age is a good idea.

Unit 9: All Kind of People

Write about your vision of schools or your town in the future.

In the future, schools will be very different. Students may use tablets instead of books. Classrooms will have smart boards and robots. Learning will be more fun and exciting. Some students may study online from home. Teachers will use new technology to help students. Schools will be bigger and more modern. I think schools in the future will be amazing.

Unit 10: Who Used My Toothpaste?

Write about impolite behavior and how it affects others.

Impolite behavior can affect other people. Some people talk loudly in public places. This can disturb others. Some people do not say "please" or "thank you." This can hurt people's feelings. Being rude can make others feel sad or angry. It is important to be kind and respectful. Good manners make everyone happy.

Unit 11: Making Choices

Write about choices you have made and their consequences.

I have made many choices in my life. One good choice was studying for my test. I got a good grade and felt happy. One bad choice was sleeping late before school. I felt tired and could not focus in class. My parents and teachers influence my choices. They always give me good advice. I learned that bad choices can teach us important lessons.

Unit 12: Culture Shock

Write an email about cultural differences.

Dear Sara,

I am staying in Japan now. The people here are very polite and kind. They bow when they say hello. The food is different but very delicious. I tried sushi for the first time. The weather is colder than my country. I am learning many new things about Japanese culture.

I hope to see you soon.

Best wishes,

Amal
